Digital Innovation Hubs boosting European Microelectronics Industry

DIATOMIC's vision is to spark the atomic fusion of business with technology in the European microelectronics industry and establish a sustainable ecosystem to facilitate digital innovation, creating a one-stop shop for solving real world problems in the health, agrifood and manufacturing sectors.

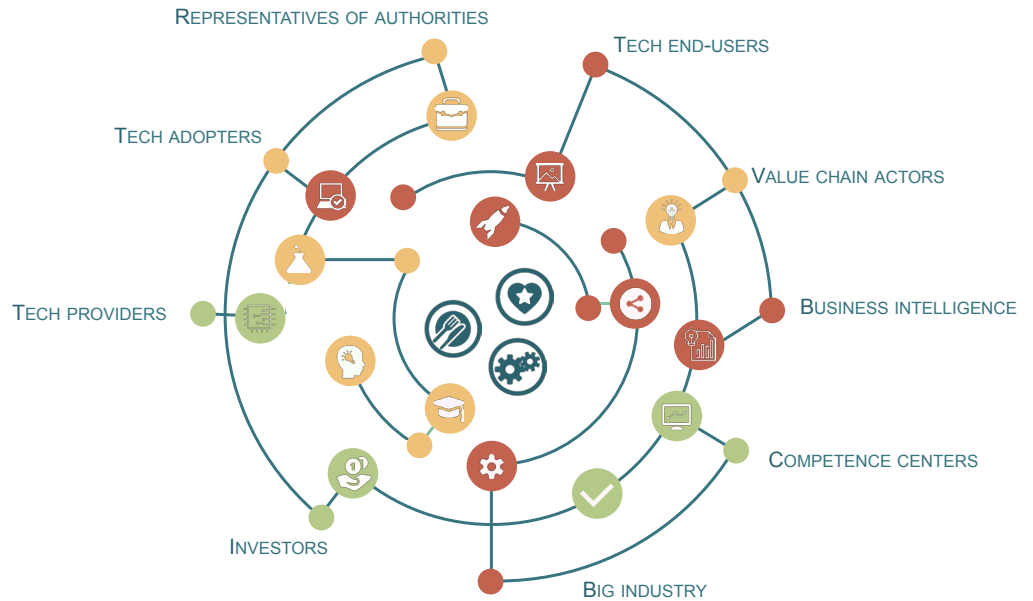

Three interconnected sector-specific Digital Innovation Hubs (DIH) will assist non-tech companies to find and couple with counterparts from across the EU with complementary technological competencies. DIATOMIC DIHs will offer

- strong technological support to accelerate design, development, prototyping and manufacturing,
- business support to develop solutions with a robust product/market fit, and chart the path to market growth and investment.
